

State vs. _____ No. _____ -R
_____ District Court, Orange County, Texas

WAIVER OF ARRAIGNMENT

At least two entire days have passed since the day on which a copy of the indictment was served on the defendant, or alternatively, the defendant waives the right to such copy and to such delay.

The defendant waives personal appearance with counsel for arraignment, waives the reading of the indictment, and pleads "not guilty."

The undersigned attorney represents the defendant in this cause, and shall remain attorney of record until either the cause is concluded or until released by the Court.

By this Court's local rule, statutory discovery is ordered to be accomplished by defense counsel reporting in person to the State's attorney within fourteen (14) days after the date of service of this Waiver of Arraignment.

Unless the defendant or the defendant's counsel suggests that the defendant is not indicted by his true name, it shall be taken that his name is truly set forth and he shall not thereafter be allowed to deny the same by way of defense.

The defendant suggests that his name is different from that stated in the indictment, and his correct name is:

_____.

Date: _____, 20____.
