South East Texas Disaster Expo to Take Place at Orange County Convention and Expo Center

The South East Texas Disaster Expo is set to take place on May 11, 2024 at the Orange County Convention and Expo Center from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM. This event, organized by Hardin, Jasper, Jefferson, and Orange counties, aims to provide valuable information and resources to the community to enhance preparedness and resilience in the face of disasters.

The expo will feature a wide range of exhibitors, including emergency response agencies, disaster relief organizations, healthcare providers, insurance companies, and more. Attendees will have the opportunity to interact with experts, participate in educational workshops, and learn about disaster preparedness strategies.

"We are excited to host the South East Texas Disaster Expo and bring together key stakeholders to promote disaster preparedness and community resilience. This event is designed to empower individuals and families with the knowledge and tools they need to effectively respond to emergencies.

– Orange County Judge John Gothia.

Highlights of the South East Texas Disaster Expo include:

- Interactive demonstrations by emergency response teams
- Information sessions on hurricane preparedness, wildfire safety, first aid, and more
- Exhibits showcasing the latest technologies and resources for disaster management
- Networking opportunities with local emergency responders and community leaders

Admission to the expo is free, and all members of the community are encouraged to attend. Whether you are a homeowner, business owner, or community leader, the South East Texas Disaster Expo offers valuable insights and resources to help you prepare for and mitigate the impact of disasters.
