Recent Emergencies / News

Old Business:

- Environmental Trade Fair Conference on May 10-11, 2022. Registration opened in January 2022.
- Elgin Browning moved to Co-Chair with the resignation of Mike Hennigan. Joel Ardoin is Secretary/Treasurer.
- Meetings have been changed from monthly meetings to every other month(odd) beginning in May. New date schedules were emailed to member/non-member list on file.
- Taxes-Carolina had investigated whether LEPC had to pay taxes and said LEPC does not have to pay. However, this is something has needs to be investigated further for filing purposes.
- LEPC plans to do folders again this year for the area elementary schools. E. Browning will talk to the Orangefield Superintendent. Folder ideals include-Shelter in place and Stan 2-1-1.

New Business:

- Conrad Shipbuilding requested to be removed from membership list.
- Past due membership (18) invoices emailed out May 1, 2022.
- Cops and Kids at Claiborne Park on June 10, 2022.
- Potential overpayment of membership fee to be possibly refunded by Entergy Transfer (Bayou Bridge Pipeline). Bayou Bridge sent in two separate checks off different accounts. Unsure if it was for different pipelines. Mary has been unable to reach anyone at the phone number on the check stub. An email has been sent also. Chem 32 has overpaid as well, and a refund will need to be processed. Shawn Baglio is checking with corporate.
