MANDATORY EVACUATION ORDER

I, John H. Gothia, duly elected County Judge of Orange County, based on most recent information received from the National Weather Service and pursuant to the Disaster Declaration of Monday, August 24, 2020 for Tropical Storms/Hurricanes Marco and Laura, do hereby order a mandatory evacuation for all residents located in Orange County. I hereby exempt the following classes of individuals from such mandatory evacuation Order:

1. Those employees of oil terminals, pipelines and oil supply facilities that are essential for and who are actively involved in the transportation and receiving of oil and supplies in Orange County refining and petrochemical facilities and such other employees who are deemed essential to the operation of refining and petrochemical facilities by their employer.
2. Those employees of hospitals, trauma centers, nursing homes, convalescent facilities or other healthcare providers who are essential for and who are actively involved in providing medical treatment and/or housing for persons who are ill or infirm and who are not evacuated.
3. Those employees of Federal, State, and Local Governments, Political Subdivisions, and Special Purpose Districts who are deemed essential by their employer.

This Order shall become effective at 6 a.m., Tuesday, August 25, 2020 and remain in full force and effect for a period of 10 days from the effective time noted hereinabove, unless extended or earlier terminated.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "John Gothia", is written over a horizontal line. The signature is stylized and includes a large loop at the end.
