

TEXT ALERT—IF YOU RECEIVE A TEXT REGARDING YOUR ACCOUNT:

We have retained the law firm of Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP to assist in resolving delinquent accounts, and you may receive texts messages from Linebarger. Be aware that there have been recent scam attempts to impersonate various government entities and their collection agents.

Any text from Linebarger will originate from the following short code phone number (98023) and contain this branding:

Scammers may attempt to spoof a 5-digit or 6-digit short code, but their texts will have a full phone number included (sometimes with a Country Code), and are usually sent to groups of people with no specific recipient name.

A Linebarger text will always include your name, an account-specific reference number, a toll-free call-back number, a link to Disclosures and Frequently Asked Questions, and a link to a payment website.

Here's an example of one scam text:
